

FTS

The FTS is devoted to the motorisation of specialised shading systems such as large awnings or screens, with vertical, oblique or horizontal orientation.

It allows a good tension of the fabric thanks to a system of 2 motors working at the same time. It works through a specific control system.

