

Plug End Brackets

The plug end bracket has a comparable function to the motor bracket's function, but it is positioned at the opposite side of the motor and allows to adapt the tube on the side of the rolling shutter box or the awning. It supports the other half of the weight of the installation but doesn't support any torque.

